Assessment Bootcamp	Justin	30	Do we want to have quizzes? Do we want to have badges? https://facultydae.waubonsee.edu/instruction/assessment/assessment-bootcamp The following points about awarding badges were brought up: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Can we track who visits the website? Justin doesn't think so. • Will giving badges cheapen the importance of what we are trying to do? • Why should we give faculty something to take with them to another school after all of our hard work? • We should include the link to the bootcamp in the emails with the reminders about due dates.

			The decision was made not to award badges at this time.
Linking Course and ILO data in AEFIS	Evan	30	How did it go? Do you need help? We discovered that faculty may not understand what is meant by linking courses to ILO's. Are we more focused on the data and how to collect it rather than assessing? Maybe we should say "aligning" instead of "linking." In one-on-one meetings with faculty, Justin and Evan are helping them understand how to assess. It was suggested that they should include reviewing the Learning Improvement Plans during the meetings. It was mentioned that we need to work on assessing all ILO's in all areas. The ILO's on the website, as well as the link, was shared. It was mentioned that we have information, but faculty may not know it is there.
Bootcamp Groups	Justin	30	Time did not allow this item to be discussed. https://docs.google.com/document/d/1YV8ne-MN8-8uplaPiTJeYt7rt4NCbpWJgAC59qhbMEA/editv
