

COURSE TOPICS

Course Topics Course topics provide students a conceptual structure or sequence of course content. Including topics on the course outline can improve overall learning as well as motivation for learning. Course topics should always align and support the learning outcomes of each course.